Rosh Hashana As The

Rosh Hashanah, literally meaning head of the year, is the Jewish New Year. The High Holy Days comprises the Jewish New Year, anniversary of the creation of Adam and Eve, a day of judgment and coronation, and sounding of the Shofar. Translated as “head of the year” (rosh=year; Shana=year), the holiday marks the beginning of the year. One week before Rosh Hashanah, special petitionary prayers called Selichot are added to the daily Shacharit. Rosh Hashanah itself is also known as Yom Teruah, the Day of Trumpets.
